

Community Centers Activation Project (CCAP)

Programme Area:

Youth Empowerment &
Capacity Building

Project Number:

00044496

Award Number:

00039598

Duration:

Feb. 2005 – Dec. 2006

Partner:

Budget:

$1,000,000

Donor:

TRAC

Project Contact

Information

Project Manager:

None

UNDP Programme

Manager:

Hiba Barakat

Project Office

-

Email:

Website:

Project Description:

The aim of this initiative is to Promote active and representative participation of lo communities towards expanding the capabilities of all community members to meaningfully influence the decisions that affect their lives through Engaging comr members in learning about and understanding community issues, and the econom social, environmental, political, psychological, and other impacts associated with alternative courses of action. While enhancing the leadership capacity of communi members, leaders, and groups within the community. The project will target unutil Community centers which were established previously by UNDP with a set of activ work toward the long term sustainability and utilization of these community center

Objectives:

The objectives of the project is to contribute to youth and women empowerment and capacity building.

Locations:

West Bank and Gaza Strip

Products:

- 7 grants to municipalities and village council on capacity building
- Support to 23 youth and women center in WB and Gaza.

Outputs:

- Community Centers activated
- Women Centers activated
- Technical and Vocational training provided