

Support to the Palestinian Reforms-Computers

Programme Area:

Youth Empowerment and capacity building

Project Number:

00035706

Award Number:

00033967

Duration:

Jan.2004-Jan 2006

Partner:

MOEHE

Budget:

$1,339,613

Donor:

Saudi Committee

Project Contact InformationProject Manager:*UNDP Programme*Manager:

Hiba Barakat

Assistant:

May Daghash

Project Office:Email:*Website:*Project Description:

The primary goal of this Programme is to promote the development of democracy by stimulating the population to participate actively in decision-making processes and sustainable human development. Computers for Community Development Project (CCDP) is designed to meet the information needs of the rural population of Palestine, who do not have sufficient access to information supporting basic economic, social and political activities. The Information Boutiques collect and provide information about judicial matters, facilitate courses and mediate between the local population and services.

Objectives:

1. Improve the quality of Education
2. Diffusion of Computers and It equipments through out Gaza and West bank

Locations:

West Bank and Gaza

Products :

- Equipping 24 centers with advanced computer hardware and software
- Establish 22 school computer labs
- Open Source-BZU

Outputs:

- Training males and females in different centers around WB and GS on different computer software.
- Access to information improved in rural and isolated areas

