The vehicles are to be sold on an “as is where is basis” and the purchaser is responsible to pay all the applicable taxes, duties, licensing, maintenance and other unforeseen charges.

The purchaser must be Israeli ID holder.

In that respect UNDP/PAPP invites interested purchasers to participate in the competitive bidding process. Purchasers should clearly indicate, on the sealed envelope the bid /s number/s they are willing to bid for in the following arrangement:

Vehicles for Sale Bid
Bid Number: ...., ...., ...., ...., ....,
Name of Bidder: ......................
All bids must include the following details:

- The price in NIS for any specific bid.
- The full name and contact details of the bidder: mobile and telephone number, street address.
- The Israeli ID number. The UNDP/PAPP will utilize this ID number in the transferring of ownership in case of awarding the bid.
- Bank check of 2,000 NIS per every bid. The checks will be returned back to the bidders upon the selling of the vehicles.

The bids shall be submitted to the UNDP 4 A – Ya’kubi Street Jerusalem, in sealed envelopes no later than Monday, 12 May 2008 @ 1200. Late bids will be rejected.

The award of bid will be granted to the highest proposed price for any particular bid. This price must not include the custom’s tax amount.

The awarded bidder must pay to the UNDP /PAPP the full amount mentioned in the bid within one week of the declaration of his award. The amount should include (the amount mentioned in the bid + the custom tax amount). Failing to do this the UNDP will cancel the award and the second successor will be announced as the new awarded bidder.

The exact tax amount will be known on the day of payment, and it is the UNDP/PAPP responsibility to pay the tax custom amount on behalf of the awarded bidder. Therefore it is advisable to arrange the payments in cash. A copy of the paid amount will be given to the awarded bidder.

On Wednesday 7 May there will be site visit (from 9:00 a.m. – 14:00 p.m.) at the Abdo Parking near Ritz Hotel Wadi El Joz, Jerusalem. Interested bidders may inspect the vehicles. No vehicles are allowed to be driven out of the Parking area. No other clarifications regarding this bid would be done in other days.

The UNDP is not committed to any payment what so ever. These payments are to be paid by the awarded bidder: registration fees, maintenance, removal of UN signs from the vehicles, the technical check of the vehicles and / or any other similar payments.
