Project Fact Sheet

Participatory Natural Resource Management Programme (PNRMP)

PROJECT AIM (OVERALL OBJECTIVE)

The overall objective of the Programme is to increase the incomes and living standards of small farmers in areas where there are few alternative income-generating possibilities by developing and managing the land and water resources to conserve and enhance productivity.

PROJECT DESCRIPTION

The Participatory Natural Resource Management Programme (PNRMP) obtained approval in April 1998 with a loan of USD 7.8 million from IFAD to the Palestinian Liberation Organization and was declared operational in February 2000. A memorandum of understanding (MoU) was signed in October 1999 between the MOA and UNDP/PAPP, whereby UNDP/PAPP assumed responsibility for the implementation of activities funded under the loan categories. The categories include, procurement of vehicles and equipment; provision of materials and supplies; subcontracting specialized NGOs; training, surveys and studies; incremental operating costs; among others.

PNRMP activities comprise an integrated approach to natural resources management by rural people who are the owners and custodians of the resources through focusing on four components encompassing land reclamation and improvement; improved crop productivity; re-establishing the Programme Management Unit (PMU) in the MOA to assist with implementation while incorporating the technical expertise of local NGOs; and, the inclusion of a credit component.

The main objectives of the programme are:

- Rehabilitation of deteriorated agricultural lands and increase soil and water conservation.
- Improve the opportunity of the targeted groups to reach the basic agricultural services and infrastructure.
